

Richard Loves Rose

A year or so ago, Richard Balmer Asked me to post the following list of race results from the thirty years of the Two County Seven Miler. Richard was the race director for the entire time. It was his race. The results are those of Rose Balmer. They are impressive, indeed. He didn't say any more, didn't say why, just asked me to post them. For those of you who don't know, Rose is Richard's wife and he is duly proud of her. Many times, she was the overall female winner.
